INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision in your case. All documents have been returned to the office which originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

If you believe the law was inappropriately applied or the analysis used in reaching the decision was inconsistent with the information provided or with precedent decisions, you may file a motion to reconsider. Such a motion must state the reasons for reconsideration and be supported by any pertinent precedent decisions. Any motion to reconsider must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider, as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.5(a)(1)(i).

If you have new or additional information which you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reopen. Such a motion must state the new facts to be proved at the reopened proceeding and be supported by affidavits or other documentary evidence. Any motion to reopen must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reopen, except that failure to file before this period expires may be excused in the discretion of the Service where it is demonstrated that the delay was reasonable and beyond the control of the applicant or petitioner. Id.

Any motion must be filed with the office which originally decided your case along with a fee of $110 as required under 8 C.F.R. 103.7.

FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER, EXAMINATIONS

for Robert P. Wiemann, Acting Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The approval of the immigrant visa petition was revoked by the Director, California Service Center. The matter is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The matter will be remanded.

The petitioner is a church. It seeks classification of the beneficiary as a special immigrant religious worker pursuant to section 203(b)(4) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the "Act"), 8 U.S.C. 1153(b)(4), in order to employ her as an "education director" at a salary of $1,500 per month.

The petitioner filed an I-360 petition for classification of the beneficiary as a special immigrant on July 31, 1995. It was approved on November 6, 1995.

The director revoked approval of the petition in a decision dated October 27, 1999 on the grounds that the petitioner failed to respond to the Notice of Intent to Revoke.

On appeal, counsel for the petitioner argues that the petitioner did timely respond to the Notice of Intent and submitted a copy of the response and a copy of a postal express mail receipt allegedly relating to the response dated within the allotted time. Counsel requested the record of proceeding be remanded to the center director for consideration.

On review of the record on appeal, counsel's argument is persuasive. The case will be remanded for consideration of the petitioner's response to the Notice of Intent.

ORDER: The matter is remanded.
